CAREERS IN PUBLIC HEALTH

A health career where you can make a difference in your community
Health Education/Health Navigator

- Develop and evaluate programs and events to teach people about health
- Help people find health services or access health insurance
- Collect and analyze data to learn about a particular community and improve programs and services
- Advocate for improved health resources and policies that promote health

Biostatistics/Epidemiologist

- Control of infectious diseases
- Track and monitor chronic diseases
- Use statistical analysis as an integral part of any study seeking the cause of a disease or benefit of a new drug
- Have a strong understanding of medical and biological processes.
- Enjoy problem solving and coming up with solutions.

Health Policy and Administration

- Administer, lead and manage healthcare systems, such as hospitals or large healthcare systems
- Administer programs that teach healthy lifestyles and prevention of disease and illness for a healthier overall community
- Analyze and develop healthcare programs with the goal of reaching as many people as possible

Environmental Health Sciences

- Monitor the health effects of environmental exposures
  - Air quality
  - Water quality
  - Solid and hazardous wastes
- Ensure safe food and drugs
- Watch global environmental change
- Inspect restaurants and agencies to ensure safe food practices

MORE PUBLIC HEALTH CAREERS INFORMATION:

Go to https://tinyurl.com/BCPBHS