EVENT INVITATION: GRANDSON OF MAHATMA GANDHI TO SPEAK IN DELANO

Event: The Gift of Anger and Other Lessons from my Grandfather, Mahatma Gandhi
Where: RFK High School Auditorium - 1401 Hiett Ave, Delano, CA 93215
When: Monday, September 30, 2019 at 11:00AM

Arun Gandhi, grandson of Mahatma Gandhi will speak on Monday, September 30th in Delano at the RFK Auditorium.

This event is open to high school students, college students, and the general public.

In his program, Gandhi will discuss the real potential with anger and how it is best to respond by channeling this powerful energy to motivate ourselves toward positive and constructive action. Discover vital and extraordinary life lessons from one of the most important and influential philosophers and peace activists of the twentieth century—Mahatma Gandhi—in this poignant and timely exploration of the true path from anger to peace.

This event is one of a series to celebrate the 150th birthday of civil rights leader Mahatma Gandhi being coordinated by the local Gandhi Celebration Committee. For the full calendar of events at BC, please visit the Bakersfield College website at www.bakersfieldcollege.edu/GandhiCelebration.
