Bakersfield College Late Start Spring Courses
Currently enrolling for late start classes for Spring semester

Bakersfield, CA—Bakersfield College is currently enrolling for late start classes for the 2017 Spring Semester. These courses begin later than the traditional semester, offering students the opportunity to still enroll in various classes and obtain additional credits during the Spring semester. Bakersfield College provides an excellent, affordable, and accessible opportunity for students to obtain an associate’s degree to transfer into the University of California system.

Courses offered for late start Spring semester
The following list of courses are currently available for enrollment at the Panorama Drive Campus, Delano Campus, and online.

Panorama Campus – 1801 Panorama Drive, Bakersfield
- ASTR B3 – Solar System
- COMM B1 – Public Speaking
- STDV B1 – Educational Planning

Delano Campus – 1450 Timmons Avenue, Delano
- ENGR B47 – Introduction to Engineering and Design
- STDV B1 – Educational Planning

Online Courses
- ENGL B1A – Expository Composition
- PSYC B1A – General Psychology
- HIST B30A – Early Chicano History

For a full list of late start classes, visit www.bakersfieldcollege.edu and click on the Programs and Classes tab located on the homepage, the class schedule can be found in the Academic Departments tab. Please note: all students and community members interested in taking one of these courses must be registered. For more information on how to register, visit www.bakersfieldcollege.edu/steps to follow the five basic steps for enrollment.

Bakersfield College offers a rigorous and supportive learning environment that fosters students’ abilities to think critically, communicate effectively, and demonstrate competencies and skills in order to engage productively in their communities and the world, while simultaneously contributing to the intellectual, cultural, and economic vitality of the communities it serves.

################