Bakersfield College celebrates young local artists in Panorama Invitational Art Show exhibition January 31st

The Wylie and May Jones Art Gallery presents an exhibition of work from Kern County High School students for The Panorama Invitational Art Show. The exhibition will display a wonderful range of two and three-dimensional pieces; as well as multimedia pieces from grades 9-12.

The opening reception will be held on Thursday, January 31st from 4:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. The gallery will be exhibiting The Panorama Invitational Art Show artwork from January 31st to February 28th. Current and potential Bakersfield College Students, Bakersfield College staff, and the general public are welcome to attend.

Honoring Young Artists

The Panorama Invitational Art Show has been an annual event at Bakersfield College for over 15 years. The exhibition takes place every year to acknowledge the young talent in Kern County. High school submissions will come from various Kern County High Schools.

The Wylie and May Louise Jones Gallery is located at Bakersfield College campus and is situated in the Grace Van Dyke Bird Library on the college’s main campus. The Spring 2019 hours of operation will be Monday through Thursday from 1:00 to 4:00 P.M.

Bakersfield College offers a rigorous and supportive learning environment that fosters students’ abilities to think critically, communicate effectively, and demonstrate competencies and skills in order to engage productively in their communities and the world, while simultaneously contributing to the intellectual, cultural, and economic vitality of the communities it serves.
