Bakersfield College Jazz presents Wayne Horvitz & Sara Schoenbeck
Acclaimed Composer and Pioneer of Contemporary Music
Monday, February 11, 2019

Bakersfield College Jazz Ensemble presents Wayne Horvitz and Sara Schoenbeck at the Indoor Theater of Bakersfield College’s Simonsen Performing Arts Center. The concert will take place on Monday, February 11, 2019 from 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. Under the direction of Kris Tiner, the Bakersfield College Jazz Ensemble performs throughout the year on campus and at local concert venues. The concert repertoire spans the history of jazz, from classic works to premieres of original compositions by visiting artists and BC student composers.

About the Event

The Bakersfield College Jazz Ensemble and Jazz Combos will perform with visiting artists Wayne Horvitz and Sara Schoenbeck. Horvitz is an acclaimed composer and pianist known for his work with John Zorn, Bill Frisell, and the New York Composers Orchestra. Schoenbeck is a pioneer of contemporary music for the bassoon, and has performed with Anthony Braxton, Yusef Lateef, and the Dakah Hip Hop Orchestra. Horvitz will work with student jazz musicians who will perform a set of his original compositions, followed by a duo performance with Horvitz and Schoenbeck.

Bakersfield College offers a rigorous and supportive learning environment that fosters students’ abilities to think critically, communicate effectively, and demonstrate competencies and skills in order to engage productively in their communities and the world, while simultaneously contributing to the intellectual, cultural, and economic vitality of the communities it serves.
