Cerro Coso Promise

The Cerro Coso Promise is a scholarship intended for hard-working, dedicated students that deserve an education, regardless of financial or personal status. By meeting basic criteria, students may qualify for up to $1,000 per semester for 2 years to help with tuition, books, and fees after financial aid and other scholarships are applied.

From specialized counseling to help with creating a comprehensive education plan, the Cerro Coso Promise is committed to making sure students participate in a variety of initiatives designed to help them meet their educational goals. Promise participants also receive priority registration, career advising, help with transferring, and other student support services to assist them in staying on track.

Let's face the facts . . .
As college becomes increasingly expensive and exceedingly debt-inducing, it's time to change the way we think about higher education. National Student Loan Debt Continues to Rise and in 2017 it reached a total of $1.4trillion.

Starting at a Community College significantly eases the financial burden of higher education. It's the Financially Smart Decision.

Average Tuition and Fee Costs for 2017-2018
Public Four-Year In-State – $10,000
Public Four-Year Out of State – Over $25,000
Private Non-Profit Four-Year – $35,000
Public Two-Year – Between $3,000-$5,000
