Welcome to the Library

Learning Objectives

After this session, you should be able to:

- Find the library at your campus.
- Identify online services and resources offered through the library.
- Contact a librarian if you need more information.

Welcome to the Library

The Cerro Coso Community College Library is home to a collection of physical materials such as books and videos, as well as online resources such as electronic books and database articles.

You can find links to most of our resources through the library website.

To access any of the electronic resources from home, all you need is your student ID @ number!
The IWV Campus
The Indian Wells Valley main campus library takes up the first floor of the Learning Resource Center in Ridgecrest. It houses over 24,000 volumes, a number of magazines and journals, and a computer lab.

Open Mondays-Thursdays: 8:00 AM – 9:00 PM
Fridays: 8:00 AM – 12:00 PM

The Bishop Campus
The Bishop Learning Resource Center is located at the ESCC Bishop campus. The LRC also houses the Learning Assistance Center, where students can get free tutoring. The books at this campus are for reference use only.

Open Mondays & Thursday: 8:00 AM – 6:00 PM

The Mammoth Campus
The Mammoth Lakes campus Learning Resource Center is located in Room 225. The Mammoth LRC also houses the Learning Assistance Center, where students can get free tutoring. The main book collection for the Mammoth campus is located at the Mammoth Lakes Public Library, a joint-use library shared by the College and the citizens of Mammoth lakes.

Open Tuesdays & Wednesdays: 8:00 AM – 6:00 PM

The KRV Campus
The Kern River Valley campus library collection is located in the Learning Resource Center in Lake Isabella. The books at this campus are for reference use only.

Open Tuesdays & Wednesdays: 10:00 AM – 4:00 PM

Online Resources
Although print materials can be found at any campus, most of the library’s resources are found online. They can be accessed through the library website.

These e-resources include:
- Encyclopedias and dictionaries
- eBooks
- Journal, magazine, and newspaper articles
- Websites
The Library Homepage
https://www.cerrocoso.edu/library

Finding Library Resources

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>What Do You Need?</th>
<th>How to Find It on the Website</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Books</td>
<td>Catalog</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>eBooks</td>
<td>Catalog</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>DVDs or VHS tapes</td>
<td>Catalog</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Textbooks (on Reserve)</td>
<td>Catalog</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Encyclopedias</td>
<td>Databases / Catalog</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dictionaries</td>
<td>Databases / Catalog</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Magazine Articles</td>
<td>Databases</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Journal Articles</td>
<td>Databases</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Newspaper Articles</td>
<td>Databases</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Websites</td>
<td>Websites by Subject</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Each of these links takes you to a different type of resource:

- Books and eBooks.
- Periodical databases (with articles from journals, magazines, newspapers, etc.)
- Websites

Don’t forget about additional library services, such as Interlibrary Loan and Textbook Reserves.

The links under Research Help can direct you to research tutorials, citation assistance, login help, and more.
Additional Help

If our library doesn’t have a resource you want, you can request it through our Interlibrary Loan system, Document Delivery (https://www.cerrocoso.edu/library/interlibrary-loan).

If you need any assistance, don’t hesitate to ask a librarian!